Who comes to Driftmoor?

Eight questions are enough to discover a playable character. Answer in your own words. There are no ideal responses. You may choose from a list, write something custom, ask Driftmoor to suggest, or leave an optional detail unstated.

PLAYTESTER

Your name: _____ Date: _____

01 Identity

These choices belong to you. Driftmoor should not silently infer them.

CHARACTER NAME _____

PRONOUNS ☐ she/her ☐ he/him ☐ they/them ☐ custom ☐ unspecified

GENDER (OPTIONAL) _____

ANCESTRY / PEOPLE ☐ Human ☐ Elf ☐ Dwarf ☐ Halfling ☐ Other ☐ Suggest

If Other: _____

1 - FIRST IMPRESSION

What do we notice when they first walk into a room?

2 - A LIFE BEFORE THE ROAD

What part of their past still has a hold on them?

3 - THE REASON TO LEAVE

What do they want badly enough to take a dangerous road?

4 - FEAR OR WOUND

What would they hate for their companions to discover? What experience still shapes them?

02 A soul with edges

Specific tensions give Driftmoor something meaningful to portray.

5 - VOICE AND MANNER

How do they speak, move, joke, or behave under pressure?

6 - LOYALTY

Who, what, or which principle could call them back even when leaving would be safer?

7 - CONTRADICTION

Name two true things about them that do not sit comfortably together.

8 - SIGNIFICANT OBJECT

Do they carry something mundane that matters to them? Why can they not let it go?

03 How do you want to play?

Choose experiences; Driftmoor can translate them into rules later.

CHOOSE ANY THAT SOUND FUN

- ☐ Protect allies
- ☐ Attack at range
- ☐ Solve mysteries
- ☐ Heal and support
- ☐ Explore wilderness
- ☐ Fight up close
- ☐ Sneak and deceive
- ☐ Use broad magic
- ☐ Negotiate
- ☐ Improvise with tools

HOW MANY RULES AND OPTIONS SOUND FUN?

☐ Keep it simple ☐ A few choices ☐ Lots ☐ Surprise me

HOW EXPERIENCED ARE THEY?

☐ Just beginning ☐ Some hard lessons ☐ Proven ☐ Match group

ANYTHING MECHANICS MUST EXPRESS

A signature tactic, training, spell, disability, tool, or limitation that matters to the concept.